IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE
CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.4150 OF 2004
IN CRIMINAL APPEAL NO. 1241 OF 2002

Ashish Dilip Gore Applicant

Vs.

The State of Maharashtra Respondent

Mr.R.D.Suryawanshi for applicant.
Ms.Usha Kejriwal, APP for State.

CORAM: S.S.PARKAR & S.K.SHAH,JJ.

November 30, 2004.

P.C.

1. Heard.

2. Earlier application for bail being Criminal Application No.4308 of 2002 was rejected by our order dated 10th March 2003. Thereafter it seems the appellant had applied for bail on medical ground which was also rejected by order dated 4th July 2003. Now the present application is again made for bail on merits and in the alternative prayer is made for fixing the appeal peremptorily for hearing. According to Mr.Suryawanshi the applicant is suffering from blood cancer.

3. The office remark is that the appeal is ready for hearing. From the Roznama of the Criminal Appeal it appears that the appeal itself was fixed for hearing on the board of the Division Bench but the same was dismissed for want of prosecution by order dated 5th March 2004. No doubt subsequently the appeal was restored for hearing. In those circumstances, the appeal may be again placed on board for hearing.

4. In the result prayer for bail is rejected and the appellant shall be at liberty to mention the matter before the appropriate Bench for fixing the appeal for hearing. This application shall stand disposed of accordingly.
